INFORMATION SHEET – FIXED-TERM SAVINGS
(Opening and maintenance of a fixed-term savings account in national and foreign currency)

1. A fixed-term savings account is savings for national and foreign private clients allowing Customers to deposit funds in national and foreign currency for the pre-agreed term, with the right to the interest defined for the agreed fixed term (only if the agreed fixed term is fulfilled). The Bank offers services of fixed-term depositing of funds with or without automatic renewal of the term. Terms and conditions of automatic renewal are defined in point 12 of this Information Sheet.
2. The Bank shall open the fixed-term savings account if a private client submits to the Bank the following documents:
 - National private client (resident)
 - Application for a savings account opening correctly filled in and signed by the private client (the Bank's Form)
 - Identification document with a photograph
 - CIPS (residence certificate)
 - Foreign private client (non-resident)
 - Application for a savings account opening correctly filled in and signed by the private client (the Bank's Form),
 - Copy of a passport certified by a competent authority and translation of the passport (into one of the official languages in BiH).
 - A document indicating the non-resident's address (temporary or permanent residence)
 - Declaration that no account exists with imposed ban on disposal of the cash funds (the Bank's Form).
3. Agreement on a fixed term savings account shall be concluded for a fixed term and shall not require notarial services.
4. A precondition for conclusion of the agreement on the fixed-term savings account opening and maintenance is opening of a BAM or EUR current account, depending on the fixed-term deposit currency, in accordance with the Bank's terms and conditions for opening of this type of account.
5. The account holder may deposit funds for a fixed term in BAM and EUR. A minimum amount to be deposited for a fixed term is BAM 5.000,00 (or the equivalent in EUR).
6. Opening and maintenance of the fixed-term savings account is free of charge.
